

- 4) While Plaintiff remains in communication with counsel for Defendant, Plaintiff disagrees with arguments set forth in ECF 52, particularly part (c), and wishes to preserve the opportunity to respond to Defendant Clary's summary judgment motion in the event that an agreement is not finalized.
- 5) Plaintiff's reply suggestions to Defendant Clary's motion for summary judgment are due tomorrow, April 3, 2020.
- 6) In Plaintiff's view, a seven (7) day extension, until April 9, 2020, should give all parties to the proposed agreement a reasonable amount of time to finalize it, and Plaintiff would plan to file reply suggestions to Defendant Clary's motion for summary judgment on the last day of the extension (if granted) should an agreement remain unfinalized.
- 7) Plaintiff has conferred with counsel for Defendant Clary and counsel indicated that he would not oppose this requested extension.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests an extension of seven (7) days to respond to Defendant Clary's motion for summary judgment.

Respectfully Submitted,

STACY ARNOLD, Plaintiff
